Name: Mun-Hee Kwon

Sex: Female

Age: 18

Last Grade Completed: 11th

Country of Residence: South Korea

Interests: Soccer, popular music, and school

Personal Background

Mun-Hee is from a medium size city in South Korea. Her mother father works for a large corporation. She has two brothers who are both older. Her mom stays home.

Mun-Hee is an A-B student with advance english skills. She wants to become a lawyer one day. In her spare time, she plays sports and likes to take long runs.

Host Family History

Mun-Hee was placed outside of Seattle, Washington with the Evans family. Don and Debbie Evans do not have any kids but have two dogs. Debbie is involed in local politics while Don works for an ad firm.

They like to go on trips and are big into local music. They decided to host when Debbie met with a family at a community service event. The family had an exchange student helping build the house.

Experiences

Mun-Hee only stayed one semester, but wished she stayed longer. She did try out for soccer, but ended up hurting her knee and couldn't play anymore. The coach asked if she could be the mascot, which she gladly accepted.

The Evans family took Mun-Hee several places, including the Grand Cayon for the holidays. Mun-Hee had a lot of fun, especially getting out of Seattle in the winter.

Mun-Hee created a lot of friends that she keeps up with through Facebook. She hopes to come back to the US one day. The Evans family said they are going to visit Mun-Hee next year for their big trip.
